

CANAL SOCIETY OF NEW JERSEY

CANAL NEWS

Rolf Warncke

Bill Pegg and friends

John Holochwost

At Waterloo's carpenter shop our crafters look forward to greeting visitors while they demonstrate their skills.

WATERLOO

SATURDAY, AUG 27th - 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m

Waterloo Road, Stanhope, NJ 07874 - Just off I-80, Exit 25

Addition date this season: Sep 17 & 24, Oct 8 & 22

The Village will be open rain or shine with lots of shade if the weather is warm and indoor activities if the weather is wet. Eight of the historic buildings will be open, historic trades & crafts will be demonstrated, there will be canal boat rides and live Irish music by Ed Saultz.

Historic Trades & Crafts

- John Holochwost, tinsmith, will demonstrate his skills as he uses simple tools to make useful articles of all kinds. NEW
- Bill Pegg and Rolf Warncke have set up a carpentry shop in the Peter D. Smith Carriage House where they will be working on projects of all kinds.
- Sharon Kuechelmann will demonstrate her skills in an 19th century Seamstress Shop using a vintage treadle sewing machine to recreate authentic period garments.
- Richard & Richard Brusco, blacksmiths from Brookside, NJ, will be working in the blacksmith's shop where they will alternate between hammering red-hot metal and interpreting the process.

The Village

A narrated boat ride on the historic Morris Canal will be offered continuously in the late morning and throughout the afternoon. Other buildings open are: Smith's Store (fully stocked general store), Smith Brothers Gristmill and Sawmill (milling by water-power), the Rutan Cabin, the Canal Museum of New Jersey, and the Peter D. Smith Carriage Barn.

For further information, please contact Joe Macasek at 973-292-2755 or at macgraphics1@verizon.net

THE CANAL SOCIETY OF NEW JERSEY