There is a secured Payment Drop Box located outside of the municipal building, which may be used for all departments. When using the drop-box, please include a self-addressed-stamped envelope if you require a printed receipt. Also please be sure to identify the department for the payment enclosed in order to assure proper credit.

We now have an email listing for tax payment reminder notifications. To sign up go to subscriptions. Sign up for finance notifications. The email and text notifications are sent out to any registered email address and phone number, regardless of payment status.

Failure to receive a tax bill does not relieve the owner from paying property taxes and any delinquent interest that accrues from late payments per N.J.S.A. 54:4-64.

Property owners be advised that if your account (tax, water, sewer or other municipal charges) becomes delinquent at the end of the year and is over $10,000 (principal and interest) the property will be charged a 6% year end penalty.

Please contact the Tax Office at (973) 983-2822 if you have any questions regarding your tax bill.
